

ABSTRACT

A method is presented comprising tuning a receiver to a first of a plurality of channels within a received broadband signal, searching for a pilot tone within the tuned channel, and updating one or more operating parameters of a cable modem to denote the tuned channel is a 5 data channel if the pilot tone is detected.